Wow, what a gorgeous purebred Simmental cow! This proven donor is our maternal sister to the 2011 North American International Grand Champion Bull, Opportunity, and she is something to see for sure. Built right with a rare blend of natural width and a gorgeous neck on a purebred female, we are likely selling this one too early as we have yet to really explore her power. It is hard to build one any more exciting than this one and she can be all yours with a Long Haul likely by her side by sale time!
OWNED WITH ME SIMMENTAL

Dear Cattlemen:

Just Great Cows. If you love practical, versatile, great looking cattle that make the cattle business more fun and more profitable then this is the offering for you. The Trennepohl program is working and winning because it is built around Scott and Jeff's standards for cow quality and the strength of the program surely shows in this 2013 offering.

As promised, they've dug deeper and farther into their best young cattle and their most proven stock to put together this very impressive offering of high-versatility, high-maternal cattle that I hope you will take the time to appraise. The strength of their herd bull battery shows through the progeny of Long Haul, Optimus Prime, Sebago, Role Model, Opie and more, as these bulls are really doing their jobs. It's a difficult balance for them I know - trying to balance the decisions of what to sell and what to keep while still keeping their personal show string as strong as ever - but there is surely plenty of quality to go around this year and they might have dug a little too deep this time. Be sure to take advantage because, just like last year, I am sure there will be more than one big winner - in many ways - to surface from this offering.

Thanksgiving is a great time to enjoy some time with family and add some great cattle to your program while doing so. I promise that you'll enjoy your visit to Trennepohl Farms and I promise the cattle will be worth your while and investment price; the good ones always are. I hope to see you at Right By Design 2013!

Happy Thanksgiving,

Craig Reiter
